Top Red Agent In Japan Given Asylum By U. S.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (AP) — The United States granted political asylum today to Yuro A. Rastvorov, a top-ranking former Russian spy in Japan who deserted to the west last Jan. 24.

'SMUGGLES' BIBLES — Rev. Basil Malof of Boston, who calls himself, "God's Smuggler," holds one of the Bibles printed in the Russian language which he is smuggling across the Russian border in ways known only to himself and his backers. Malof has placed over 83,000 Bibles in Russia already. He plans to print 1,000,000 Bibles and 5,000,000 New Testaments, all in the Russian language. (Telephoto)

At a dramatic special news conference here, Rastvorov personally told reporters he deserted to the West because:

"I wanted to live like a decent human being. I wanted to live decently and I wanted to be able to treat other people decently."

Russia was formally notified in a note sent to the Soviet Embassy today that their long-missing intelligence man was in American hands and has been given a temporary visa to stay in the United States.

Soviet Ambassador Georgi N. Zarubin, apparently learning in advance of the development, refused to show up at the State Department to accept the American note from Undersecretary W. Bedell Smith.

Zarubin declined even to send a Soviet diplomat to accept the note in his place — an attitude which the State Department labeled "unprecedented."

Rastvorov was reported to be Russia's master spy in Japan, and a personal protégé of Lavrenty Beria, the secret police chief who was executed by the Soviets last Dec. 23.

But, in talking to reporters at a news conference sponsored by the State Department tonight, he professed to be merely an intelligence operative and not the boss of the Soviet spy net in Japan.

However, American officials said Rastvorov definitely masterminded one spy network and knew of the existence of three others which operated under instructions from Moscow in the Far East.

Tanned and dressed nattily in a light gray summer suit, Rastvorov frankly acknowledged to reporters that as a spy he received information from "medium-high" Japanese government officials and others.

But, he said, the Soviets failed in their efforts to pick up spy information from American servicemen and Americans generally.

The 34-year-old Russian said that during the seven months he has been under American custody he has revealed all the intelligence information that he knows. Japanese government representatives also have been permitted to question him.

"Now I hope I can make a new start," he said.

Five Desperate Convicts Nabbed; Hostages Freed

PAWTUCKET, R. I., Aug. 13 — UP—Four desperate convicts fleeing the Norfolk, Mass., prison colony were captured Friday night after they were flushed with police bullets from a swamp and crashed a stolen car just across the Connecticut border. The fifth escapee surrendered meekly in the swamp with a prison guard he was holding hostage.

The four led by trigger-happy Russell T. Halliday, 26, of Cambridge, Mass., commandeered a car in a Pawtucket garage, taking with them a man working in the garage who was identified as Peter Cherniaski of Pawtucket, state police said.

They drove the car down Route 4, running into a road block set up by Connecticut state police at the Rhode Island border. Connecticut state trooper William Douglas, manning the road block near the town of Quiddie, stopped the fleeing car, apparently with a shot. It crashed into a tree.

Halliday, a second escapee, James J. Schworm, 37, Malden, Mass., and the hostage garage-man was captured at gunpoint by Douglas, police said.

The two other fugitives got out of the wrecked car and fled into the woods, William Couture, 40, of Billerica, Mass., and Martin F. Feeney, were caught a few minutes later by four state policemen who surrounded them with drawn guns.

Police said Halliday had a gun but did not try to use it.

Two shots were fired at the four as they fled the swamp near St. Francis cemetery, Pawtucket police said.

The fifth fugitive, Richard Lavoie, 40, of Woonsocket, R. I., was trapped in the swamp by Pawtucket police inspector Lt. John Torrey, who found Lavoie crouched in tall grass with the hostage prison guard, Walter F. De Adder, 28. Lavoie was holding a knife in the guard's back.

De Adder had been held prisoner by the convicts since Wednesday night when they walked out of jail and drove off in his car. Lavoie surrendered after Torrey said: "If you so much as move I'll let you have it."

De Adder was not harmed.

SOMEbody's BAREFOOTED — A Morning World reporter, Paul Smith, regards a pair of ladies' shoes (size 10) found standing neatly alongside a railing on the old Ouachita River bridge Friday afternoon. Professional curiosity sent the finder to police, but no report of a drowning or a Brodie leap had been filed.

Baptist Minister Kills Self Near Downsville; Wallace Funeral Sunday

FARMERVILLE, Aug. 13 (Special) — A Downsville Baptist minister sent a shotgun charge through his throat in his own living room Friday afternoon as his wife and two neighbors waited on the lawn for him to join them.

Acting Union parish coroner Dr. Arthur C. Wallington said the death of Rev. Shelby Wallace, 50, has been found to be suicide.

The body was found by a neighbor, Mr. Cox, after he heard the blast. The coroner said his investigation revealed that the fatal shot entered the body through the throat and raced upward into the brain.

Dr. Wallington said the man's body was found lying face upward on the living room floor, with the weapon at the feet.

No note was reported found at the scene and friends could offer no reason for the suicide. A family friend said the man had evidently been in good health, but had appeared despondent in recent weeks.

State police in Monroe dispatched a Kilpatrick ambulance to Farmerville for the body which will lie in state at the residence after 10 a.m. Saturday.

Kilpatrick has announced funeral services at New Chapel Hill beginning at 2 p.m. Sunday with Rev. Bill Baker and Rev. A. T. Mitchell officiating. Burial will be in Hasley cemetery in West Monroe.

Surviving are the widow; one brother, Douglas Wallace, West Monroe; three sisters, Mrs. A. K. Voss, West Monroe, Mrs. C. K. Smith, West Monroe, and Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Leach, Longview, Texas.

Pallbearers will be Malloy Sloum, Marvin Sloum, O. N. Sloum, A. K. Voss, Clyde Fulton, and J. P. Leach.

Bill To Outlaw Communists Hits Snags In House

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 — UP—Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck clearly indicated Friday that President Eisenhower holds the key to whether the House will consider the Senate-passed bill to outlaw the Communist party.

The Indiana Republican told a reporter the House will be asked to take up another in a series of anti-subversive bills on Monday, but added that he still is uncertain whether it will be the bill to outlaw the party.

He left little doubt, however, that the House will be asked to approve the outlaws bill if Mr. Eisenhower passes along word that he wants the measure included in the administration's anti-Communist legislative package.

Proposed by the Democrats, the bill was whipped to passage by the Senate Thursday night by a unanimous roll call vote of 85 to 0. The measure, a combination of two separate proposals, also would crack down on Red-dominated labor unions and business firms.

Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr. testified in opposition to the proposal as recently as April 12 on grounds that it would drive the Communists underground and make it harder for the FBI to keep tabs on their activities.

The measure declares that the Communist party is not a "political party" but "an instrumentality of a conspiracy to overthrow the government."

Drive To Seize Formosa Urged By Red Premier

His Demand Is Latest In Series
By Red Chinese

LONDON, Aug. 13 (AP) — Red China's Premier Chou En-lai today called for determined action to capture Formosa, island refuge of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and his Nationalist China government.

Peiping radio said Chou made his statement in a foreign policy report to the People's Government Council.

"Liberation" of Formosa is necessary, Chou declared, "so as to safeguard China's sovereignty and territorial integrity."

The Formosa Strait separating Chiang's island and the Red China mainland is 100 miles across at its narrowest point.

Chou's pronouncement follows a recent series of broadcasts by Red China military leaders demanding overthrow of Chiang's forces. Chinese Nationalist leaders have described this talk as more for diplomatic quagmire than for military purposes.

In Washington, officials shrugged off Chou's remarks as part of Red China's war of nerves against the Nationalists. The State Department made no comment, but pointed out that Secretary of State Dulles said at a news conference last week American forces are committed to help the Nationalists beat off any Red invasion of Formosa. The island has been under U.S. naval protection since the Korean War outbreak in 1950.

Chou charged that "aggressive circles" in the United States, unable to reconcile themselves to Red victory in China, "have taken a consistent position of hostility to the liberation of China."

The Geneva conference, he declared, marks "a victory for the forces of peace."

But "U.S. aggressive circles have not acquiesced in this defeat. They are more actively than ever prompting and aiding Chiang Kai-shek's clique of national betrayal to carry out with increasing recklessness a war of harassment and destruction against the Chinese mainland and coastal areas."

The United States, Chou contended, was directing against the Chinese people "armed intervention and the threat of war." Red China, on the other hand, has "worked with steady perseverance and noble objectives of world peace and the progress of mankind."

Peiping radio said that Red China's top boss, Chairman Mao Tse-tung, attended the council session today. The broadcast added that the council approved Chou's report and also heard announcements of "appointments and dismissals."

The latter was not amplified.

124,638 Taken in Daylight Holdup Suspect Held After Negro Trio Robs Maryland Bank

ANDREWS AFB, Md., Aug. 13 — UP—Three gunmen robbed a military branch bank here of $124,638 Friday and one man was captured by a policeman who unwittingly let two other suspects go.

The FBI caught 24-year-old Clarence Duke McGinn of New York with being one of the Negro bandits who staged Maryland's biggest bank robbery.

He was picked up on a speeding charge at nearby Upper Marlboro, Md., with two companions a short time after the hold-up. The officer, however, was unaware of the robbery and released the other two.

FBI agent D. K. Brown said McGinn had been identified by five of the eight persons who were herded into a vault during the

Faith-Healing Demonstration Fatal

Preacher Killed By Rattlesnake

TRENTON, Ga., Aug. 13 (AP) — A self-styled Tennessee preacher, bitten by poisonous snakes 10 times previously, was killed by a rattler last night at services of a faith healing sect near here. It was the second such death in the area this summer.

Sheriff F. C. Graham said the victim, Reece Ramsey, 67, of near Chattanooga, died after putting the snake back in a sack shortly after the rattler sank its fangs into Ramsey's head above the right ear.

The Rev. A. M. Walraven of Dunlap, Tenn., assisting Ramsey in the service in a brush arbor between Sulphur Springs, Ala., and Rising Fawn, Ga., told a reporter the preacher died in his arms while the choir was singing the revival song, "I'm Getting Ready to Leave This World."

Dr. G. I. Weatherly of Fort Payne, Ala., who examined Ramsey, said cause of death was not listed, but it probably would be recorded as from snake venom. He said Ramsey had "three triangular shaped punctures above the right ear."

Sheriff Graham said he was asking J. B. Hillin of Rome, an agent of the Georgia bureau of investigation, to help in the case.

Graham said the meeting was (Continued on Second Page)

Senate To Pay Lawyer Aiding Sen. McCarthy

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (AP) — The lawyer who represents Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) in the forthcoming Senate investigation of McCarthy's official conduct will be paid out of government funds.

This decision was announced today by Sen. Watkins (R-Utah), chairman of the special committee which is scheduled to start hearings Aug. 30 on moves by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) and others to censure McCarthy.

McCarthy had suggested that the Senate pay his lawyer. He also called on the Legislative Reference Service to look over the precedents — the history of cases in which other members of Congress have been given counsel in election contests and other proceedings.

Watkins said the decision to provide McCarthy with a lawyer — of his own choice — has the approval of both Republican and Democratic senate leaders and Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.), chairman of the Rules Committee.

McCarthy didn't say what lawyer he would pick. The expectation was that he would name Edward Bennett Williams, a Washington attorney who has represented him in the past.

The Senate voted $30,000 to the Watkins committee Wednesday on the new McCarthy inquiry. Watkins told reporters the six-man committee has agreed part of the money should be used to hire McCarthy a lawyer. "We have not set aside any specific sum," he added.

NEWARK, Ohio, Aug. 13 (AP) — All 16 crewmen parachuted from an Air Force KB-29 refueling plane near here today, and the big plane, two engines dead and another afire, crashed and burned in a field. The plane was on a routine training flight from Dow Air Force Base near Banzon, Me.

Sheriff's deputies reported all 16 men had been found. Three were treated at a hospital at nearby Zanesville for bruises and cuts. They are 2nd Lt. Edwin J. Ziemler, 23, Sulda, Minn., a navigator; 2nd Lt. Garland E. Smallwood, 22, Jefferson, W. Va., radar operator; and A1C Jack F. Ford, 29, Queens Village, N. Y., light engineer. The others were not injured.

After Capt. George D. French, 33, Southgate, Calif., aircraft commander, ordered the ship abandoned, the plane proceeded 20 miles, crashed and exploded about 200 yards from a federal fish hatchery a mile and a half southwest of nearby Hebron.

Measure Goes To Conference; Fate Doubtful

Demos Override
President's Plea
For Enactment

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 — UP—The Senate spurned a last-minute plea from President Eisenhower Friday and rejected a compromise version of his hotly-debated atomic energy bill.

The action, taken on a 48 to 41 roll call vote, returns the measure to a Senate-House conference committee for further compromise efforts. It further dimmed hope for quick congressional adjournment.

Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper (R-Ia.), Senate floor manager for the bill, warned in advance that such action would kill the bill, which is high on the President's list of "must" legislation.

Originally hammered out in a stormy 13-day Senate talkathon, the measure is designed to foster a new domestic atomic power industry, permit freer atomic exchange with U.S. allies and open the way for Mr. Eisenhower's atom-for-peace plan.

Foes of the compromise version insisted, however, that it would result in an atomic power monopoly. They said an acceptable bill could be agreed on within a few days if House members would accept Senate provisions.

The compromise was defeated by a combination of 42 Democrats, 5 Republicans and Oregon Independent Wayne Morse.

Two Democrats — Sens. J. William Fulbright (Ark.) and Harry F. Byrd (Va.) — joined 39 Republicans in supporting the compromise. The five Republicans voting against it were Sens. John Sherman Cooper (Ky.), Henry G. Dworshak (Idaho), William Langer (N.D.), George W. Malone (Nev.) and Milton R. Young (N.D.).

Shortly before the vote, Hickenlooper made public a letter from the President, dated Thursday, stating that passage of the compromise was of "utmost importance" to "the vital interest of the United States and the cause of world peace."

Mr. Eisenhower denied the bill would create an atom monopoly. He said he had examined it carefully. (Continued on Second Page)

Duster Pilot Is Killed In Crash In East Carroll

LAKE PROVIDENCE, Aug. 13 (Special) — A Harrison, Ark., crop-dusting pilot was killed instantly at 2:30 p.m. today when his Aerona spray plane crashed six miles north of Lake Providence.

He was identified as Clifton Dennis Birge, 36. He had been flying in East Carroll parish for about four weeks as a crop duster employed by the C. R. Davis flying service.

Birge's badly broken body is being held at the Catron-Gay funeral home pending word from his family.

Witness reported that the crash occurred as Birge pulled over trees at the end of a spray run, and turned back over the crop.

Jackson Gunshot Victim's Funeral Held Yesterday

JONESBORO, August 13 (Special)—Funeral services for A. H. Ricks, 50, who died of an apparently accidental gunshot wound yesterday, according to Sheriff Lloyd Bryan, were held at 3 p.m. this afternoon at the Antioch Presbyterian church. Interment followed in the Antioch cemetery.

Ricks was a resident of Pumpkin Center, between Quitman and Hodge. According to the sheriff, his wife and daughter had gone to Ruston, leaving Ricks at home. Ricks was to have gone to work at the bag department of Southern Advance Bag and Paper company that afternoon, but when the wife and daughter returned home at 2 p.m., his packed lunch and glasses were found on the table.

They became alarmed and began an immediate search, finding his body beside his gun in the barn near the house. They notified the sheriff's department.

Sheriff Bryan said he thought it was a case of accidental shooting. A wooden trough was overturned near the body, and the sheriff said that apparently Ricks was attempting to shoot a chicken snake in the barn.

He was a member of the Antioch Presbyterian church, of Quitman. Officiating at the funeral services were Rev. D. B. Tullos, Rev. Joe Pace, and Rev. W. S. Unsell.

Ricks is survived by his wife, his daughter, and a brother and sister.

He added that if atomic power becomes an economic source of electricity, REA cooperatives "should and will have protection as preference customers," he said the bill "adequately provides" for such protection.

But Democrats, backed by Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) charged that "three little words" in the compromise bill could kill the traditional custom of giving public power to bodies first chance on government-produced power.

The bill, in permitting the Atomic Energy Commission to sell atomic power generated in experimental plants, specifies that preference should be granted "insofar as practicable to cities, REA co-ops and other public bodies."

Officials said the hold-up — third on a Maryland military post within two years — was the largest "by far" in the state's banking history. Andrews Air Base is located about 10 miles north of Washington, D.C.

All three bandits were in their 20s and were described as "snappy dressers." One wore a pair of green sun glasses.

M-Sgt. Llewellyn Baldwin, Pottstown, Pa., one of the customers forced into the vault, had $1,200 in his pocket in bonuses and other payments he received Thursday for re-enlisting for another six years. The bandits didn't search him.

life in this country," he said, a normal life like the lives of other people. I hope I can become an American like other Americans.

Rastvorov's flight to the West was viewed by top American intelligence chiefs as one of the most successful cold war achievements to date.

He defected to American counterintelligence agents in Tokyo. This was shortly after he had been ordered to return to Russia, and he acted as he did apparently because he feared he might be executed as was Beria.

In notifying the Russian Embassy of Rastvorov's presence in the United States, the State Department also informed Ambassador Zarubin that the ex-spy "is available for an interview immediately" if the ambassador wanted to talk to him.

Rastvorov said he knew of no spies or their contacts in Washington but stressed that he has not been here before and could not be expected to know this.

He reported what another Russian spy has already informed American authorities — that the head of the Russian secret police spy apparatus is Alexander Panushkin, a former ambassador to Washington.

The extraordinary Rastvorov news conference came only two days after the Communists staged a similar giant meeting with correspondents for Dr. Otto John, former West German security chief who fled to the Communist zone of Berlin July 20.

Press Officer Henry Suydam of the State Department maintained in answering questions, however, there was "no connection" between the two developments.

The scene of last night's snake handling was in the county adjoining DeKalb County, Ala., where last June a Trenton sawmill worker, Jim Thomas Gifford, 30, was killed by a snake during a faith healing service.

Alabama authorities jailed two preachers on charges of violating that state's law banning snake-handling, but the trial has not come up.

Ramsey was one of the leaders in the resurrection of the snake handling rituals nine years ago at the Dolley Pond Church. The group defied Tennessee law by fondling snakes in public and even "bootlegged" reptiles into services while sheriff's deputies patrolled the churchyard outside.

Mother Of Dead Sergeant Denies He Killed Self

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 13 (AP)—The mother of an Army sergeant found dead in the muddy Pearl River said today she is positive her son did not commit suicide.

"He had every intention of living" the last time she saw him, a few hours before he was killed, said Mrs. James Dickson, a registered nurse and mother of 22-year-old William L. Ford.

But investigating officers still went on the theory that he probably shot himself while standing in the river. Ford's pistol was found in the water about 30 yards from where his body was retrieved Wednesday.

"Billy was a happy-go-lucky boy, had lots of friends and never did anyone any harm. He wasn't the kind of boy who would take his own life," Mrs. Dickson said.

She said her son planned to get married last Tuesday and arranged to meet her to drive her to Clarksdale for the ceremony.

She said he had $1,100 in cash Sunday night and planned to use the money on a new car.

The sergeant was AWOL from Fort Campbell, Ky.

His car, its dashboard shattered by five bullets, was found about 100 yards from where his body floated against a log in the river. His empty billfold was found near the car.

Fire In Prison Cell Blocks Is Under Control

KINGSTON, Ont., Aug. 13 (AP)—

A raging fire in the central cell blocks at Kingston Penitentiary was brought under control tonight while 70 armed guards stood watch on the flood-lit high walls to forestall any escape attempts.

Prisoners were at work in shops when the fire broke out in mid-afternoon and were kept there under close watch throughout the fire-fighting.

The fire started in a roof over the cell blocks, apparently from defective wiring, while repairs were being made.

The blaze was believed confined to the roof and once was reported under control in late afternoon. Then the roof fell in and the flames spread.

Man Is Indicted In Knife Slaying

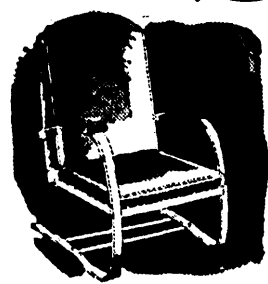

MERIDIAN, Miss., Aug. 13 (AP)—Wesley Roberts, 25, Center Hill, was indicted for murder today in connection with the slaying of Howard Hughes, 38, Birmingham, Ala.

Hughes died Sunday of knife wounds in the abdomen and chest. Sheriff Bill Mosby said Roberts had been held in the Lauderdale County jail without bond since last Monday.

Mosby said efforts would be made to try Roberts in the present term of circuit court.

Child Needs Perfect Fit In Footwear

Three out of four American children will go tripping back to school this fall in shoes that are liable to cause permanent injury to their feet before vacation time rolls around again, unless parents take heed.

Failure to provide proper footwear for youngsters is not the result of carelessness or neglect, but can be traced to lack of information and the circulation of misinformation.

Children's feet and their shoes should be checked at regular intervals — but it is particularly important in the fall, after the youngsters' feet have been subjected to a hard summer at camp, the beach or the playground where they've run around barefoot, or have worn sneakers and flimsy play shoes that provide inadequate protection for young feet.

The Grown-Up Look

In today's fashion-wise world, a "sensible" shoe need not mean an ugly shoe. And for girls—besides the oxford, there are saddle shoes, Mary Janes, and a whole range of dressy shoes with special treatment in the form of buckles and laces, ankle straps and ties, and other aspects of the "grown-up" look, available with the kind of all-leather construction and attention to correct shoe-fitting that will breed a new generation with healthy feet.

The ideal shoe for all-around school and play wear is a laced all-leather oxford. The supple leather upper and resilient leather soles provide adequate support for growing feet, as well as a puncture resistance to nails and other sharp objects four times that of any other shoe material. At the same time they permit free circulation of air, and evaporation of moisture, through the natural fibers of the leather.

Recent studies show that 70 percent of upper-grade school children have feet that require attention. The cause is usually in the fit or the kind of shoes they are wearing or have worn in the past.

What About Toes

Mothers may get a picture of the condition of their children's feet by examining their shoes. Look at the bottoms first. If the wear covers the entire sole area, with the greater wear evident along the margin of the sole, the shoes fit correctly. The heel, also, should be worn down along the outer edge.

If the forward portion of the sole shows excessive wear, the shoes are too short. Toes are being cramped. This will affect gait, posture, and may be the root cause of back pains in adult life, or of "cranky" children right now.

Is wear especially heavy on the inner border of the heel, and on the inner margin of the sole? If so chances are the upper is misshapen, too, with the inner side bulging unnaturally. This, too, adds up to pronated feet—the technical term for a foot weakness that throws too much weight on the inside of the foot. The remedy may call for a visit to the podiatrist or physician.

There are 26 bones in each foot. Their delicate, complex structure is one of Nature's wonders, since these bones are subject to thousands of pounds of pressure daily. Remember that the bones of the foot are not fully developed until about the age of twenty; that children's feet grow rapidly, and will be injured by shoes that are too stiff and so heavy that they restrict freedom of movement.

Otto John Was Capitol Guest Before Defection

By DONALD J. GONZALES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 —UP— Shortly before he disappeared behind the Iron Curtain on the night of July 20, West German Security Chief Dr. Otto John:

1. Visited in the United States for about five weeks under the sponsorship of "U. S. government agencies."

2. Was guest of honor at a private dinner given by Central Intelligence Chief Allen W. Dulles.

3. Shook hands with FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover and was taken on a short tour of the FBI.

4. Talked at the State and Defense Departments with diplomats, Army, Navy and Air Force representatives.

These facts have been established by the United Press in an extensive investigation of the circumstances surrounding John's visit to the United States.

Details of the John story have been hard to fill in. Some officials are reluctant to discuss his visit here now that John has gone over to the Communists—whether voluntarily or against his will.

No government agency wants to take responsibility for sponsoring John's visit. No agency will say outright that government funds were used for John's trip, although this is said by some officials to be the case. Clear embarrassment has been shown in some cases.

But many officials contacted agree that as far as they can recall, John neither did or said anything which pointed to an impending decision to quit the West and join the Reds. They are baffled by the whole affair.

They agree, too, that it is most unlikely John picked up any classified security or intelligence information of value to the Reds. This is at least true, they believe, so far as any official contacts with John.

It is not entirely clear where John spent all of his time in the United States. He told one official that he "had been to California." And it is known that he was in

Approval Sought For Bayou Crossing

VICKSBURG, Miss., Aug. 13 (Special) — The Vicksburg district, corps of engineers, is considering the application of The Atlantic Refining Company, Dallas, Tex., for approval of plans for the construction of a subaqueous pipe line crossing of Bayou Macon in Madison and Franklin parishes, section 14, township 15 north, range 9 east, at a point about 13 miles east of Baskin and approximately 62.2 miles above the mouth of the stream.

Plans submitted by the applicant indicate that the proposed work will consist of placing one four-inch natural gas pipe line a minimum depth of 4 feet below the bed and side slopes of the stream.

WHO'S A THIEF

WACO, Tex., (AP) — A man telephoned police yesterday that a thief had stolen his money while he slept in a car.

Investigators now are questioning him about why he was sleeping in a car reported stolen.

Date and place of the birth of John Alden, the Mayflower Pilgrim, are not known.

His trip presumably was arranged to acquaint him with life in the United States and to obtain first-hand information on security matters in Germany. He was known to have excellent information on organizations and individuals "fronting for the Communists" in Western Germany plus data on activities in the Russian zone.

New York City on June 15. John planned to visit for at least three months before he arrived in New York on May 19.

Re-Education For Self Destruction

The plan of the international conspiracy to destroy the free world and the individual soul of man is faced with one major obstacle. It has been faced with that same obstruction for many years.

THE OBSTRUCTION IS THE UNITED STATES.

If the international conspiracy headed by the Marxists of the Soviet Empire is to succeed the United States must be put out of action and reduced to destruction. How to do it? By direct action? The leaders of the cabal realize with great truthfulness that should a direct attack against the United States occur, the American people would even today, even with the present state of American mind, probably be effective in defeating the conspiracy.

Thus, the leader so long ago, Lenin, realized that the job must be done over a long period of time.

For fifty years, the United States has been the victim of a monster propaganda machine. The insidiousness of this thing is only now being realized by those whose business it is to study the question. Working from three angles, the leaders of the plot are seeking and have sought to render the U. S. helpless before the storm.

From an economic standpoint, the Marxists are hoping to destroy the economy of the United States. This, they will eventually succeed in doing should the "cold war" last much longer. In the second phase, the Internationalists are hoping to destroy the effectiveness of U. S. Armed might by hampering free action and by taking into themselves the sovereignty of the United States. In the final phase, the plot, working directly through the Marxist political (religious) organizations hopes to convert the United States into a Marxist state.

A comparison of the actions of the government today with those of thirty years ago is enough to stagger the average American who still is under the somewhat erroneous opinion that he lives in a completely "free country."

Only if all three phases of this well planned, diabolical plot or conspiracy fail, will total war come about. During the past thirty years, the conspiracy has scored numerous successes. A quarter of the Earth's surface is under its control. Millions upon millions of the human race are vanquished slaves of this conspiracy. It is heavily armed and well financed.

IT KNOWS WITH A FIERY ZEAL, THAT WHICH IT DESIRES. THE OPPOSITION IS WEAK, CONFUSED AND HAS NOT THE SLIGHTEST IDEA OF THAT WHICH IT FIGHTS.

Consider a specific but very important point in this giant war for men's minds. The methods of information, religion, and press must fall or be corrupted. The races must be weakened by miscegenation.

What about the press and the magazines (and other information media)? A more curious and vacillating American press has never existed. Newspapers of great circulation, papers which could publish the facts of the present near catastrophe not only are not publishing these facts, not editorially discussing them, but they shy away.

Magazines, especially the large circulation slick bound editions, are not only weak and vacillating, they are in the main "liberal" which is the polite term for a publication controlled by "anti-anti-Communists" and sometimes, pro-Marxists. Many young industrialists, those who partially control the large national industries and companies are quite often the victims of the pre-war and post war "liberal" movement in the colleges. As a result, the left wing and the outright Marxian publications are "favored."

Happily, this does not exist to a great extent in the South which has been termed by worried conservatives as "the nation's last bastion of freedom."

Unfortunately, the South cannot be that bastion much longer unless somebody is awakened in time to save the rapidly faltering situation. To what specifically does this newspaper refer? Consider the caliber of candidates elected and nominated in the South in recent elections.

In Alabama, Sparkman, an ultra-"liberal" was elected over Congressman Laurie Battle, a very able and capable man. This newspaper was literally swamped with contacts from that state who showed proof that the NAACP, the CIO and the Socialist "Americans for Democratic Action" helped win the election for Sparkman.

Mississippi is presently the center of a hard campaign. James Eastland, a fine Senator is having the fight of his life against a man who has been described as a "liberal." It is reported that outside cash is coming to Mississippi. Texas is the scene of a terrible campaign where the CIO, the NAACP and the ADA are determined to destroy Governor Shivers at almost any cost. Reports from Texas state that Governor Shivers is in a particularly desperate situation.

Then, there was the election of Mr. Faubus in Arkansas. He defeated Governor Cherry, an outstanding man. It is said that several Arkansas newspapers had accused Cherry of "McCarthyism" and resorting to "McCarthy tactics." These "tactics" were simple. Governor Cherry had merely brought up the fact that Faubus had once attended a Communist, or possibly pro-Communist school in Arkansas.

Should the truth not come out in any election?

There was also Kefauver who ran on a strictly internationalist platform and who was assisted by the same sources as listed above with possibly a few others. Kefauver won over a conservative opponent. It is hoped that Ray Jenkins will oppose "Conskinn" in the coming election. Had the truth of Kefauver's connections been brought up, the situation might have been saved. Finally there is Barkley in Kentucky. Barkley, a line Truman man was recently given a great "play" in a "conservative" magazine. This magazine has on at least one occasion, refused to print the other side of the Asian situation.

So on, and so on. It is pitiful to note the support given these left wing publications who are merely advisors of disaster. The Marxists have enough support without that given by American exponents of "free enterprise."

The plan has succeeded.

Re-education for disaster is the order of the day.

THESE DAYS

The Purge

Franklin D. Roosevelt tried to purge his party of senators and representatives and, with one exception, he failed. Roosevelt was at the height of his popularity, pretty much the master of his party and probably the ablest political operator ever to have sat in the White House. But he failed when he applied the purge method to American politics.

Now President Eisenhower has undertaken a process of endorsement which gives the impression of being a purge by indirection. The President poses with a candidate in the 1954 campaign before a photographer. The candidate is then free to exhibit the photograph as a tacit endorsement of himself by President Eisenhower. It is then to be assumed that those who are not so photographed are not endorsed by the President. If those in a joint photograph are elected and those who are so photographed are defeated, what is the political status of the President?

Whoever evolved this formula must be a novice in politics. Senators and representatives are elected on a basis of local interests. They are rarely, if ever, chosen in any state on a broad national program. The endorsement by President Eisenhower may be an advantage in some places; in others, such an endorsement can mean very little. For instance, in a state where the Farmers Union prevails politically, an endorsement by President Eisenhower can be of no greater value than an endorsement by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson. Emanuel Celler, to cite another example, will not be defeated in his particular district in Brooklyn even if his opponent is photographed with President Eisenhower, whether such a defeat is justified or not. It will be interesting to see if such a photograph defeats the Veep, Alben Barkley, in Kentucky, or if it elects Clifford Case in New Jersey. In each of these situations, local conditions and personal equations will determine the results.

The purge is dangerous because it adds another element to the division within the Republican Party. The split started in the 1952 convention between the Taft and Dewey supporters. Eisenhower was not a factor in it, as Senator Robert A. Taft established while he was alive. He joined forces with Eisenhower and called upon his personal followers to pursue the same course.

AMONG OTHER THINGS

LITTLE LIZ

Our Children

By Angelo Patri

We have all met the "complainer," who always has bad news to tell. Nobody ever had such a backache, or headache, or such bad luck as he. Nobody ever had such a troublesome time rearing children, nobody. The weather is terrible, can't get anything done. The neighbors? No words are adequate.

Now, everybody has his troubles. Nobody escapes them. Pain, grief, annoyances — who does not have his daily share? Trying to get along with his share of woe is enough of a burden without having to listen to the "complainer." Nobody loves a "complainer."

The worst effect he produces is that which he brings out in the children who hear his tale of trouble day after day. Naturally they begin to think in the same terms. Their troubles become the most important events of their day; they dwell on them, cherish them, cultivate them to their own great unhappiness.

What these unfortunate overlook is that there is always something good befalling them. If they would only put the same stress on the happy feelings, the pleasant happenings, that they place on the annoyances, they would soon overcome their distress.

Dwelling on trouble, centering thought on pain or illness is the surest way of increasing the woe. Filling the mind with the thought of health, recovery, success, is the surest way of getting rid of the difficulty. Accepting whatever help you may have from the doctor, the clergyman, and assuring yourself that you can and will get over this "Hill Difficulty," is the very best road to recovery. A cheerful heart is great medicine. Faith and prayer help tremendously.

Whatever way you choose to overcome trouble, be sure to consider the effect your thought is having on the children close to you. If you have faith that you can overcome trouble, if you can face it cheerfully, if you can keep from complaining, if you will not only help yourself out of difficulty but you will teach the children how to be strong in spirit, brave in heart, stout of soul.

Many of our daily troubles pass with the day. Courage and patience surround them. Some serious difficulties are likely to beset us. With them we need help. But before anybody can help us, we have to prepare our minds to receive the help. An attitude of acceptance of recovery, a willingness to think forward to health and good fortune, have as much to do with recovery from trouble as any treatment obtainable.

Pilfering is characteristic of childhood, but children pass through this stage if they are guided properly. Dr. Patri's leaflet P-27, "Pilfering," tells how to explain and teach your child the dangers of this habit. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to him, care of this paper, P.O. Ike Is Confident

President Eisenhower is confident he has enough clincher arguments to keep Congress in Republican hands. Republican advisors who doubt that the "forward looking program" will persuade voters to support GOP candidates have been reminded that what the administration has accomplished will be emphasized, rather than what it hopes to do in the future.

Predictions are that Eisenhower will ask voters whether they are better off than they were two years ago, citing end of wars, no more casualty lists, better life for old folks — better pensions and further increases promised — seven billion dollar reduction in spending, 213,000 reduction in federal pay rolls, coming development of atomic power money plentiful, St. Lawrence waterway construction under way, stabilized farm prices, some reduction in food prices and in taxes.

However, prediction that Democrats will carry the House is still unchanged, represents majority opinion here.

Benson Wins but Loses — Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson licked his foes in Congress on the farm bill, but now is plagued by resignations of key men, who are being sought at big salaries by food chains which have been waiting to see whether he could win his fight. They now want executives who understand Benson believing he will hold his present office until 1956, at least. He doesn't view resignations with favor, thinks they owe it to him to stand by.

Joe Has Felt The Strain — If he follows doctor's advice, Senator Joe McCarthy will hold his speaking engagements this fall to a minimum. He is threatened with stomach ulcers, has a bad sinus condition, affecting one eye, and his blood pressure is frequently high. Physicians point out that the cure quiz will impose more strain, and that if he tries to fill speaking dates from coast to coast, he may shorten his life.

Prediction is that Senator Joe will accept no more than a score of engagements during the campaign but his friends will put up money for at least a dozen national and regional broadcasts and telecasts.

Rhee Did All Right — Contrary to reports that President Syngman

Rhee had a cold reception here, both at the White House and the Capitol, the wily Oriental went away well satisfied. By talking up to Uncle Sam about our responsibilities in Korea, he was given promises of more now military help for his people, which is what he really wanted. Prediction is that civilian aid for Koreans will weaken enthusiasm for Red rule in Communist North Korea, which needs aid from China, otherwise its people will go hungry.

This One Paid Off — The first emperor to visit the United States in 15 years — George VI of England — was emperor of India when he was here with his queen in 1939 — left with a fine impression, due to excellent public relations. That was Haile Selassie, emperor of Ethiopia, who spent the summer touring the United States. Forrest Finley, smart young Washington public relations man chartered his American tour, arranged enthusiastic which the State Department finds it hard to do.

Prediction is that as a result of the visit, American capital which hesitates to invest in Europe will be put into meat packing, coffee and other Ethiopian products. European investors have also been attracted to back the courageous little man who kept his country free of colonial envelopment.

Facts Worth Knowing

A proclamation by the president setting a day for the observance of Thanksgiving actually makes that day a legal holiday only in the District of Columbia and territories of the United States.

Andrew Jackson, Henry Clay and Daniel Webster contributed to the building costs of St. Peter's Episcopal Church at Tecumseh, Mich., the oldest Episcopal church west of the Allegheny Mountains.

The first art gallery to be connected with a college in the United States was established at Yale in 1831. The gallery was designed by Col. John Trumbull to receive his paintings of the American Revolution.

Candidates Focus On Nation's 21 Million Veterans

WASHINGTON — Elections are just around the corner, and the veteran vote is one of the most pervasive of all the groups that a homecoming Congressman and his opponent like to appeal to. How big is it? Where is it located?

Today, according to estimates of the Veterans Administration, there are nearly 21 million veterans in the country. Some 3.3 million of these did their fighting in World War I — 146,000 living veterans hark back to still earlier wars — but most of them are veterans of World War II or Korea. Some 800,000 of the 15.4 million World War II veterans also fought in Korea. Of the 2.7 million Korean veterans, 1.9 million saw service after 1950 for the first time.

Back in civilian life, veterans are distributed rather unevenly among the various states. New York, for instance, numbers nearly 10 per cent of all veterans among its population, with 2,068,000 of them. Other states with more than a million veterans are California, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and Texas.

But even in the more sparsely settled states, veteran constituents are numerous and proportionately influential. Nevada, with the smallest number of veterans of any state, still has 27,000.

Returning Congressmen will be sensitive to veteran constituents on two counts: Their interests as veterans, and their interests in the general employment-and-unemployment situation.

Among late actions of the expiring session was Senate passage Aug. 1 of several veterans bills, including legislation to increase by five per cent the service-connected compensation payments of approximately 2,347,000 veterans, widows and dependents. The House had passed this bill July 21 on a 399-0 roll-call vote, despite a statement by Majority Leader Charles A. Halleck (R-Ind.) that the benefit increase exceeded the rise in cost-of-living. When the House Aug. 4 passed a bill for a similar increase in non-service-connected disability pensions of about 94,000 veterans, their widows and orphans, Halleck said that the Veterans Administration and Bureau of the Budget both recommended against the increase.

Impetus may have been added to the veterans bills by a resolution adopted unanimously Aug. 3 by the Veterans of Foreign Wars at their Philadelphia Convention. The VFW resolved that "we do oppose in public session" the "growing and cynical disregard" and "willful neglect" of veterans and their dependents under the Eisenhower Administration. Vice President Nixon was guest speaker at the convention.

The present economic status of veterans offers opportunities to Congressmen to point with pride at past legislative accomplishments. While veterans, along with other members of the labor force, have had their economic difficulties over recent months, the various types of preference to which they are entitled under the law have eased the incidence of unemployment. All-time peak in veterans employment came a year ago when the August total of employed male World War I veterans was 14.1 million. The total dropped until in March 1954, 671,000 veterans were unemployed. Even so, of the veterans in the labor force in the 25-44 age group, only 4.5 per cent were unemployed as compared with 5.5 per cent of male non-veterans. Latest figures show that of every 100 in this age group, four or over 100 male World War I veterans in the labor force were unemployed, but five of every 100 male non-veterans were jobless.

Advantages offered under the GI Bill and various training and retraining programs passed by Congress seem to have made a striking change in veterans' earning capacity. In 1947 the median income of male veterans between 25 and 34 was $2,401, as compared with $2,585 for non-veterans of the same age group. Six years later, veterans' income showed a 51 per cent rise to $3,631, while non-veterans' gained 19 per cent to a total of $3,065.

LOUISIANA'S VETERANS — Of the country's total of 20,685,000 veterans of all wars, 309,000 are currently located in Louisiana. Of these, 233,000 are veterans of World War II. Korean veterans, some of whom also fought in World War II, number 44,000 in Louisiana.

Conference For Defense Of Southeast Asia Set To Open In Philippines Soon

LONDON, Aug. 13—UP—A conference to forge an anti-Communist alliance for the defense of Southeast Asia will open in Baguio, the Philippines, Sept. 6, reliable sources reported Friday.

The United States and Britain formally scheduled for Saturday an announcement of the place and time of the meeting. Advance indications were that it would be the mountain resort center north of Manila three weeks hence.

The United States, Britain, France, Australia, New Zealand, Thailand, the Philippines and probably Pakistan will be among the initial participants.

British quarters hoped that India, Ceylon, Indonesia and Burma might be brought to associate themselves with the alliance later when its terms have become known. So far they have declined to have anything to do with the arrangements.

On the eve of the formal announcement of the conference, a new problem arose Friday. Britain and France were at odds on whether Laos and Cambodia could join a Southeast Asia defense pact.

Britain insisted the two Indo-China states could not, France, with the expected backing of the United States, maintained they could.

The difference arose from the interpretation of the neutralization of the two states by the Indo-China truce agreement at Geneva.

French officials argued that Laos and Cambodia could join in any alliance not conflicting with the United Nations charter. The United States was understood to share that view.

Luginbill Funeral Will Be Held Sunday At 2:30

Funeral services for O. L. Luginbill, 42, who died of a bullet wound in his head early yesterday, will be held Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at the Fair Park Baptist church on the White's Ferry road. Rev. C. C. Martin, pastor, will officiate.

Burial will be in Hasley cemetery in West Monroe, under direction of the Mulhearn funeral home. Pallbearers will be Reese Russell, J. P. Colvin, Ed Pohlman, J. D. Wilbanks, Reese Freeman and O. L. Weir.

Luginbill, a construction worker and contractor, was found in a closet at his home on the Restful Home Road by his 10-year-old son. At first, as he was rushed to the hospital, it was believed that he was hemorrhaging from the mouth, but X-rays disclosed the 22-cal. slug lodged in his brain. Deputies investigating the shooting found a rifle and an empty shell in the chamber inside the closet.

Luginbill was reported to have been in ill health lately.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Martha Luginbill, one daughter, Martha Ann; two sons, Jerry and Larry, all of West Monroe; three brothers, Lee and Gurge, both of Kansas City, Mo., and Paul Luginbill of Bonner Springs, Kans.; one sister Mrs. Mary Mangold of Kentucky; and his mother, Mrs. Della Luginbill.

Federal Attorneys Probe More Than 200 Cases Of Possible Housing Fraud

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13—War-chief criminal prosecutor, said today that more than 200 cases involving alleged fraud, collusion or other irregularities in the housing field are now "in various stages of investigation" by federal attorneys throughout the country.

In a letter to Sen. Byrd (D-Va.), Olney said that since Jan. 1, 1954, 23 convictions and 34 indictments have been obtained in the Justice Department's attack on housing scandals.

Most of these, he told Byrd, stem from misuse of the home repair loan program. The Federal Housing Administration insures commercial loans for home repair and modernization up to $2,500. Senate investigators have been told that "gyp artists" have milked millions of dollars from unsuspecting home owners for shoddy repairs—or in some cases for no repairs at all.

Olney's letter to Byrd, written in answer to the Virginia Democrat's formal request for the present status of prosecutions, is the first comprehensive report on what steps the Justice Department has taken.

Indictments and convictions, ranging across the nation, covered such offenses as "forged documents," "interstate transportation of stolen monies in connection with home improvement transactions," the practice of "high pressure sales methods and falsified loan documents" and the use of the home repair loan program "as a means of obtaining a down payment for the purchase of automobiles."

The Senate Banking Committee, headed by Sen. Capewell (R-Ind.), and Byrd's Joint Committee on ment since last April 12, when the White House announced its own investigation of housing irregularities.

Byrd, who planned to place Olney's letter in the Congressional Record today or tomorrow, made it available to a reporter. He had specifically asked Olney for information as to possible prosecution of Clyde L. Powell and other ousted FHA officials. Powell twice invoked the Fifth Amendment when asked by the Banking Committee about his conduct as assistant FHA commissioner.

On that point, Olney said: "Since the personnel and miscellaneous matters to which you refer are at this time in various stages of investigations and have not developed to the point where an indictment has been returned, you will appreciate that the disclosure of the identities of the persons charged and the nature of the charges may, at this time, be unfair to those persons."

Olney also noted that the "status" of cases pending as well as the number of indictments and convictions, is not static and that currently there are being considered in various federal grand juries throughout the country many Federal Housing Administration matters.

Most of the home loan prosecutions, Olney said, are being brought under Section 1010 of the Criminal Code which makes it illegal to file false statements with a government agency.

The Internal Revenue Service has under study several score tax cases involving the question whether builders who reaped "windfall" profits can legally pay taxes on the "windfall" at the 25 per cent capital gains rate, which some have claimed.

The government is attempting to require payment at the much higher normal income rates.

Grand Jury Ends Week Of Probing In Phenix City

PHENIX CITY, Ala., Aug. 13 (AP)—Vice-hunting grand jurors finished the first week of their historic task today after questioning the ousted police chief who accused Mayor Elmer Reese of protecting gamblers.

The jury, called into emergency session Monday to start sifting evidence collected in the eight-week old vice purge, took a recess until Monday morning without returning indictments or making a partial report.

Special circuit solicitor George C. Johnson declined comment meanwhile on a report that incoming Gov. James E. Folsom might be called as a witness. Obviously disturbed at being asked the question, Johnson commented: "That's like asking a man if he's stopped beating his wife."

Folsom, who takes office next Jan. 17, testified before another grand jury in Birmingham during its investigation of vote frauds which Circuit Judge Alta King said were linked to widespread racketeering in Phenix City.

Gambler Godwin Davis Sr., told the jury that he and his pals contributed $22,680 to candidate Lee Porter's unsuccessful race for attorney general.

Porter, who admitted getting money from the gamblers, was defeated by anti-vice crusader A. L. Patterson, whose murder on June 18 touched off the unprecedented vice purge in Phenix City.

The Russell County grand jury heard testimony today from Phenix City's deposed police chief, Pal Daniel, who has said Mayor Reese gave orders to refrain from raiding gambling joints.

Reese called the charge a "damn lie."

Another witness this morning was patrolman Jess W. Green, who likewise said he and other officers were instructed by "higher ups" to leave gambling joints alone.

Daniel and Green, along with all other Phenix City policemen and sheriff's officers, have been stripped of law enforcement authority since National Guardsmen took over police duties under limited martial law three weeks ago.

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 13—UP—Gloria Grahame, Academy Award winning actress, and Cy Howard, radio and television writer, producer, announced they plan to be married this weekend.

The students will assemble behind the auditorium at Neville, Davis said, and each is urged to bring his instrument and any march music that he might have. Davis urges that all of last year's Junior and Senior high bandmen be present, and he invites any student who has finished the sixth grade, and who has band experience, to be on hand at 7:30 a.m. the time of the registration meeting.

Bridal Shower Honors Miss Chandler

Claiming prominence among the social events of the season was the miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Wynelle Chandler, bride-elect of Billy Grey McGough, on Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Richard Bass, of Farmerville, with Mrs. A. C. Dykes, Mrs. Frank Milford, Mrs. Carlos Malone, Mrs. Barnes Hayes, Sr., and Miss Cleo Taylor as co-hostesses.

Guests were greeted on the spacious porch by Mrs. Dykes and were registered by Miss Peggy Johnson of Truxno, in the bride's book.

The guests were then received by Mrs. Bass and the honoree, who was lovely in a dress of soft green nylon with a crescent corsage of white carnations accented with dashes of silver. Also in the receiving line were the bride's mother, Mrs. Norman Duty, the prospective bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Martille Scalla, the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Dettie McGough, along with the hostesses, who were all gowned in lovely summer fashions.

The house was beautifully decorated with festive arrangements of asters, zinnias, and daisies placed at vantage points throughout the reception rooms. The round coffee table held as its centerpiece a lovely arrangement of yellow daisies. An artistic arrangement of Birds of Paradise adorned the mantel.

Mrs. Malone and Mrs. Hayes invited the guests to view the lovely display of gifts.

Miss Taylor ushered the guests into the dining room. The bride's table was overlaid with a white cutwork cloth and held as its centerpiece a beautiful crystal epergne which contained small pink rosebuds. Myriads of tall white tapers in silver candelabra threw a soft glow over the entire scene. Individual white cakes embossed with tiny pink roses and pink and green mints together with heart-shaped, open-faced sandwiches were placed along the board in silver containers.

Miss Beth Dawkins served punch at the crystal punch service, while Miss Dorothy Futch and Mrs. Eton Cannon assisted in extending courtesies. More than a hundred guests called during the receiving hours.

Among those out of town were: Mrs. Harry Blackstock, Texas; Mrs. Wendell Parks, Alexandria; Mrs. Jess Futch, Bernice; and Mrs. John P. Clark, Monroe.

Try adding about a third cup of cubed crisply cooked bacon to a corn bread recipe. Serve with a vegetable plate featuring broiled tomatoes, green peas or snap beans, eggplant and sweet potatoes.

PRINCESS STYLE AT COLLEGE—On the campus, a new version of the princess silhouette has an all-over embroidery pattern on wool jersey. The dress is completely lined for shape retention. This girl is using a brand-new kodak, one that is moderately priced for a college student.

Wilson-McDanell Vows Said In Church Ceremony

Miss Florence Elizabeth McDanell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. McDanell of Baton Rouge, La. and Mr. Jessie Frank Wilson, son of Mr. Thomas Wilson and the late Mrs. Wilson of Gillsburg, Miss., were married in an impressive ceremony at 7:30 p. m. July 30 at Douglas Avenue Baptist Church in Baton Rouge. Rev. Bradham officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mr. Billy Coursey presented the prenuptial music at the piano and accompanied Mr. Greer Coursey who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was wearing a ballerina length dress of nylon net over white taffeta. The fitted bodice came to a point in front and buttoned down the back with pearl buttons, fashioned with a deep neckline. She wore a finger tip length veil. Her bouquet was white carnations centered with an orchid. Miss Neta Crum, friend of the bride was matron of honor. Her gown was fashioned from the bride's gown. She wore a corsage of pink carnations.

Candle lighters were Miss Mylene McDanell, sister of the bride and Mrs. Sandra Price. The flower girl was Jeanie McDanell, cousin of the bride. Her dress was yellow embroidered organdy. She carried a basket of pink roses. The ring bearer was Dale McDanell, brother of the bride.

Mr. George McDanell, brother of the bride, served the groom as best man.

Mrs. McDanell chose for her daughter's wedding a pink nylon mesh gown, with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Wilson the groom's aunt wore a dress of navy blue with white accessories and white carnation corsage.

After the ceremony a reception followed at the church. Guests were received by the bride couple, their families and members of the wedding party. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth, centered with a three-tiered wedding cake with bride and groom ornament on top. Tea girls were the bride's sister, Miss Wilma Nell McDanell and Miss Barbara Joy McDanell, cousin of the bride.

For traveling, the bride changed to a pink and blue nylon dress with white accessories. Her corsage was an orchid from her bouquet. After a wedding trip to Memphis, Tenn., the couple are at home in Baton Rouge.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

Let's Don't Kid Ourselves; Overweight Shortens Lives

For the past few days I have been printing some letters from Marathon winners. I always hope that these will inspire other women to do what the writers of these letters have done.

I hope this not only because I know how much happier they will be without those excess pounds, but also because I know what a health hazard overweight is to them.

The medical profession has been talking and writing a great deal about the dangers of overweight. The mortality rates in such diseases as heart failure and diabetes and others is startlingly higher in that group which is overweight when compared to those of normal weight. You simply cannot dream these statistics away. You must face them.

Shortens Life
If you are overweight you have less chance of living to a ripe old age and you also have less chance of remaining well and vital into old age. As a matter of fact you are playing into the hands of fate in making yourself more susceptible to many of the chronic diseases at middle life. Do not take this lightly. You must make your choice, but a choice it is.

Many women write me to say that they are enjoying life so much more after losing weight, not only because they like their new figure but because they do not tire so easily as they did, that they have pep to burn and have also lost many small difficulties such as constipation, a stiff joint and so forth.

While only ten to fifteen pounds overweight is better than twenty or more, yet even ten pounds can make a great difference in your figure and personality and the way you feel. Today I quote from another letter. The writer had only a comparatively few pounds to lose. She writes,

Lost 13 Pounds
"To begin with I weighed 133 pounds which made me look pudgy and feel bad, since I am only 5 feet, 3 inches tall. With the help of your calorie chart and your exercises I now weigh only 120 pounds."

"Not only do I look better, but I feel better and am so much more comfortable in my clothes. My waist and hips are inches smaller, too, thanks to the exercises."

So, even if you have only 10 or 12 pounds to lose, do not allow them to linger. If you do they are almost certain to turn into 20 or more.

If you would like to have the reducing routine Marathon winners used—which can bring you a loss of 20 pounds in eight weeks' time, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for my Eight-Week Self-Improvement Marathon Booklet. Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Sergeant Robbed Of Money, Truck By Hitchhikers

MOORE, Okla., Aug. 13—UP—An Oklahoma sergeant stationed at Carswell Air Force Base said Friday two men robbed him of $73 and his pickup truck after he gave them a ride.

The victim, S. Sgt. Joe C. Brashers of Sulphur, Okla., said he picked up the pair as hitchhikers about 10 p. m. at Gainesville, Tex., and they took over his truck at knifepoint. He said one of them held a knife on him and the other took the wheel, driving to a point south of Moore on U. S. 77, where they took his money and forced him out of the vehicle.

He said he was on a three-day pass, on his way to visit his wife and father, both ill at Sulphur. He described his kidnappers as being about 25 and 30 years old.

Brashers told his story to O. K. Bivins, chief of the Oklahoma State Crime Bureau, and a statewide alert was broadcast for the kidnaper-robbers.

It was reported the men were suspected of being the same pair who terrorized a young farm wife near Valley View, Tex., Tuesday, but Bivins said he knows nothing of the Texas case.

The woman, Mrs. Lawrence Sicking, said two men came into her home and forced her at gunpoint to prepare a meal for them. She said they did not harm her, but warned her not to call officers.

Building Permits

The following building permits have been issued by city building inspector S. H. Ayl:

E. J. Brown, to add one room to a one story frame dwelling at 1818 Adams Street at a cost of $400.

Tony Ruffino, to add two rooms to a one story frame store at 1122 Ouachita avenue at a cost of $1100.

Mahogany was used as early as 1514.

Dorothy Dix

DEAR MISS DIX: My husband has been in the army for eight years, and now, although he has a chance to come home after 18 months overseas, he is turning it down. He has asked, instead, for another 18 months abroad. I can't understand his action. Our baby was born since he's been away and I should think he'd want to see her. Should I consult a lawyer, or just wait for the 18 months to pass?

Cecile W.

ANSWER: The important thing for you to know is why he has decided not to come home. This is a very unusual choice for a serviceman and the reason may have a vital bearing on your future. He may be staying for the extra money, or for an imminent promotion. Then again, he may be against coming home to face new responsibilities. If his letters don't give a satisfactory answer on this point, perhaps a request to his chaplain will enlighten you.

DEAR MISS DIX: I would like a career in journalism; could you tell me something of the possibilities in this line?

Joan A.

ANSWER: Your chosen field is overcrowded, very difficult for the inexperienced to enter. However, nothing is impossible to one with determination and talent. I suggest that you discuss the problem with one of your teachers, preferably in the English department. Do as much outside reading as possible, concentrating on books on journalism, history, biography, standard authors and outstanding new publications. Your librarian will guide your reading program. In school, take as many English courses as your schedule will permit, read your newspaper intelligently, and thus equipped, you may not find it impossible to break down the barriers.

DEAR MISS DIX: I have never had occasion to ask for advice before, but this problem baffles me. I'm 24 and have been going steady with a young man for three years. Because of our long friendship, he feels entitled to certain privileges that I consider should be reserved for marriage. Since I gave him my answer, which is four weeks ago, I haven't heard from him. Was I wrong in my decision?

Jennie

ANSWER: The young man's silence can certainly be interpreted as proof that he had no real regard for you, and that he considers going with you a waste of time since you won't acquiesce to his very fallacious theory. You are absolutely right in your decision; stick to it.

DEAR MISS DIX: Is a man justified in trying to get his wife back after he foolishly let her go? Eddie and I were married eight years ago, had two children, and were divorced—through my fault—in 1951. To this day I don't know why I acted as I did. I loved my wife then, and I love her now. However, she has remarried and has two more children. I don't think she's happy and would like to know how to go about winning her back.

Mr. C.

ANSWER: It would be much better to leave your ex-wife alone at this point. Your assumption that she's not happy is entirely supposition and for you to interfere now will only make additional complications. The future has a habit of taking care of itself quite nicely.

Write DOROTHY DIX for free leaflet D-17, "Praise or Blame." In all cases, be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and send request to her, care of this newspaper.

She will play special numbers on a vibra harp. She is an accomplished musician on organs, pianos, vibra harps and other musical instruments.

Miss Wilson is from Baton Rouge and is visiting here Saturday and Sunday to have part in launching the youth led crusade at the Fair Grounds in West Monroe.

Rev. Tom Hall, 21, Beaumont, Tex. youth is the evangelist for the crusade and John Jolly, also of Texas is the music director. Nineteen Baptist churches on the west side of the river under the leadership of the Trenton Baptist Association are backing the crusade.

The first service will begin Sunday afternoon at 3:00 p. m. by words of welcome and best wishes by James L. Ewing, editorial writer of the News-Star — World. Mr. Ewing is a young man still in his twenties and is a crusader for the survival of Christianity in our time.

Many fine dynamic Christian youth of the Twin Cities will have part in this campaign according to Betty Fisher, publicity director for the revival.

Firing Of Guard In Whipping Case Is Upheld By CSC

BATON ROUGE, Aug. 13 (AP) — The Civil Service Commission today upheld disciplinary action against a Louisiana penitentiary guard who either was asleep or "playing possum" so realistically he had three witnesses convinced he was snoring.

Guard M. A. H. Brouillette claimed he was not asleep in a truck while on duty the night of June 8. He told the commission he merely closed his eyes and pretended to sleep to "play possum" on an approaching truck.

But three occupants of the visiting truck testified Brouillette, who was suspended for 10 days then resigned, not only was asleep but jumped in surprise when one of them pounded on the side of the truck.

"We are unable to accept the appellant's testimony as reasonable," the five-man commission ruled. "If not asleep, he successfully induced three witnesses to believe he was."

In another penitentiary case, the group upheld the firing of guard Lamar E. Smith, charged with whipping an inmate after strapping him to a bed.

Smith appealed the action, but failed to show up for the hearing. As provided in Civil Service rules, penitentiary officials proceeded with their side of the case.

"The evidence is uncontradicted," the commission said. "On the facts, the removal is justified. For that reason and because of his failure to appeal, his appeal is dismissed."

Technically, Smith was not entitled to a hearing, because he is a probationary employee. The commission, however, decided to give him "full opportunity to be heard on all questions." Even so, he failed to appear.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13—UP—The Agriculture Department Friday designated 47 counties in Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas, as drouth disaster area, making farmers there eligible for federal drouth subsidies and loans.

Other sections of the three southwestern states previously had been declared eligible for aid under the government emergency relief program because of heavy drouth losses.

Dr. Means, Noe Honored For 'Golden Deeds'

Dr. E. K. Means and James A. Noe were honored at the weekly luncheon of the Exchange club for their "Golden Deeds", and Dr. Means spoke to the club after professing that he was not quite sure what "Golden Deeds" were responsible for the citation.

H. H. Brinsmade was also introduced as a club guest.

Dr. Means paid tribute to the club for the high honor accorded him, and gave the group one of his inspiring sermons.

Inquiry Delayed In Fatal Wreck; Witness Injured

District Attorney Fred Fudickar, Jr., said Friday that an investigation into the fatal accident which took the life of Roy McCann, 40-year-old Fairbanks chemist, will be delayed until Mrs. J. O. (Red) Willett is released from the hospital.

Mrs. Willett was injured in the same accident in the second car involved. Her injuries were reported by hospital attendants as "not too serious."

In the meantime, funeral services for McCann were held at the Alabama Presbyterian Church at Sibley. He died of a fractured skull and traumatic brain injury, according to Ouachita parish coroner, Dr. J. T. French.

Elton F. (Dick) Gunn, driver of the car in which McCann was riding, also was injured, but has been released from the hospital, it was reported Friday.

The accident occurred about 4 p. m. Wednesday at the intersection of Airport road and First street at Selman field.

City police said Wednesday there are no right-of-way designations at the intersection, and there has been no evidence as yet of any law violations on the part of either driver.

McCann is survived by his wife, Elva Pennwell McCann of Fairbanks; his parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. C. McCann of Monroe; and two sisters, Mrs. Estelle Hammons and Mrs. Betty Jean Leske, both of Monroe.

Mayor Questioned In Dr. Sheppard Homicide Case

CLEVELAND, Aug. 13 (AP)—Bay Village Mayor J. Spencer Houk was quizzed again today on what he knew about the Sheppard murder case. After five hours he went home, and Police Chief Frank W. Story said there was no reason to hold him.

The chief also said "we had to restrain the mayor physically" when he was confronted at Central Police Station by Dr. Stephen Sheppard, brother of Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard. He added that the mayor wanted to "punch him in the nose."

Dr. Samuel Sheppard is being held in county jail on a first degree murder charge in the July 4 slaying of his pregnant wife, Marilyn. In their Bay Village home.

Story said Mayor Houk was questioned for the fourth time since the investigation began because of information supplied by Dr. Stephen Sheppard.

The chief said nothing of value to the murder investigation had been uncovered in today's questioning of the mayor.

Three hours after the quizzing began, Dr. Stephen Sheppard was called into the room where police were talking to Houk. After another two hours, both left, declining comment. The mayor merely said "I'm going home."

Chief Story said he had told Dr. Stephen Sheppard there was no reason to hold the mayor. He said the osteopath replied, "I'm very glad to hear it."

The doctor continued that he was very glad Houk was being "released," Story said.

The chief said he corrected the doctor by saying "he was not released. He has never been arrested, charged, or booked. That should be made clear."

On one of the three previous occasions when Mayor Houk was questioned, he had taken a lie detector test. He is a neighbor of the Sheppards, and a close friend.

Pankey Outlines Scout Camp Role

Camp Ki-Ro-Li, the $60,000 Boy Scout camping site established by the combined Kiwanis, Rotary and Lions clubs for Ouachita Valley Scouts, was the subject of Scout Executive Jack Pankey when he addressed Monroe Kiwanians this week.

"The camp," said Pankey, "accommodated 643 boys last year and will receive more than 800 this year. The tents, always popular with the Scouts, will sport new wooden floors and camp cots this season."

Pankey told of the recent addition of a filtering plant for the swimming pool and the renewal of archery and rifle range facilities at the camp.

He also remarked that Camp Britton, for Negro Scouts, is being operated again this summer. Seventy eight Negro Scouts are at the site this week, he said.

Jackie Rivers Takes Y's Men's District Golf Crown

Thomas Number 2 In Annual Event; Ed Watkins Third

Jackie Rivers, one of Monroe's fastest improving young golfers, yesterday defeated Joe Thomas, his little hometown rival, 5 and 4, in the finals of the annual north-east Louisiana district Y's Men's Junior Golf Tournament at Municipal Golf Club.

Rivers, succeeding Don Sims, Bastrop, as the champion, was presented a certificate of his new throne by Dick Riley, president of the Monroe Y's Men's Club in ceremonies following the two-day tourney at the Muncy clubhouse. A trophy, delayed in arrival, will be claimed by Rivers at a later date. Sims did not compete this year.

Rivers had reached the finals with victories over Ed Watkins, West Monroe, and Neal Eldridge, Bastrop, while Thomas moved into the title round by eliminating Steve Henry and Mark Womack, both of Monroe.

Watkins, who gave Rivers his closest match in losing 1 up in 19 holes of the first round Thursday, was the consolation winner when Henry conceded their consolation final.

Richard Burgoyne, Monroe, triumphed in the first flight, beating out "Sonny" Harper, Sterlington, 3 and 1, after Burgoyne had reached the finals over Jim Harper, Sterlington, and Jerry Knight, West Monroe. "Sonny" had moved up over Bennett Humphries and Gene Barham, both of Monroe.

Jim Harper won the first flight consolation in a 1 up duel with Harris over a 21-hole route.

Football Drills At Sicily Island Opening Monday

SICILY ISLAND, La., Aug. 13 (Special)—The Sicily Island High School football squad will begin regular practice Monday night at 6 o'clock.

Missing from last year's squad will be seven starters. They are Billy Coney, Carey Pearson, and Johnny Martin in the backfield. In the line are Duane Keenan, Buddy Fairbanks, Larry Henslee, and Richard Enright. These boys will be greatly missed.

Sicily Island will have some good boys to help plug the gaps. Back for another year are co-captain William Mount and captain Huey Nelson who made all-district last year. Also in the line there is Albert Dampier and Walter Knotts both 195 pounders and Roy Evans, who doesn't pack much weight, but should give the opponents some trouble.

Returning lettermen in the backfield are B. K. Miller, Bobby Cupit, Benny Frank, Alford, and Faye Thurman who made all-district last year.

There are many other prospects coming up this year that should cause much competition. Some of the prospects are Charles Enright, Lynn Evans, Samuel Crawford, Charles Stringer, Harvey Wells, Dean Wiggins, Billy Wiggins, Charles Gillespie, Woodrow Alexander, Reginald Wycoff, and many other promising youngsters.

Night For Old Timers Slated At Shreveport

SHREVEPORT, La., Aug. 13 (Special)—Nostalgia is scheduled to reign supreme at Texas League Park here Monday night, Aug. 23. The Shreveport Sports will stage their first annual Old Timers' Night when they seek to honor all those men who have played professional baseball sometime during the past.

President Bonneau Peters of the Sports revealed the date and plans today.

"We sponsored an Old Timers' Game here in 1950 and it met with success," he said. "However, it was not revived until now. We hope to make this an annual affair and one which will attain increasing prominence with each passing year."

The former players will be divided into two teams and play a three-inning game prior to the regular league encounter between the Shreveport Sports and the Beaumont Explorers. It is hoped, Peters noted, that the two squads can be composed of former Shreveport players against players who performed for other clubs in baseball.

There is no time limit imposed, as to age and length of playing experience.

Already signifying their willingness to participate are such notables of the past as Al Mazur, former Shreveport second sacker and Monroe manager; Bobby Wilkins, another ex-Sport and Augusta pilot; Heinie Mueller, Gus Whelan, Lou Humphries, Dave Short, "Bear" Allday, Abe Miller, and, perhaps the greatest of all Texas League hitters, Vernon (George) Washington.

"Since this is the first year it is not possible to issue personal invitations to each and every former pro player," Peters said. "We earnestly invite every one of them, however, to come to Texas League Park between 5 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. on Aug. 23 and report to the Shreveport clubhouse."

Peters also invited those who are too old to play, as they will be honored with special seats and recognition.

White Sox Down Tigers, 1-0, In 16 Inning Thriller

TALLULAH, La., Aug. 13 (Special)—Thirty-five candidates reported to coaches Harry Don Morton and assistant Boone Halbach for football practice Wednesday night as the Trojans began their two-week preparation for the first round robin football jamboree to be held in Tallulah. Head coach Harry Don Morton said that four teams, Lake Providence, Winnsboro, Newellton and Tallulah, from the north-east area will participate Friday night, August 27, at 8 o'clock at Legion Field. Each Team in the Jamboree will play the other three teams a 12-minute game. Thus the round-robin affair will consist of six 12-minute games.

Tickets for the jamboree will go on sale Monday. The largest crowd ever assembled at the Legion Field for a football contest is expected, therefore all local fans are urged to purchase their tickets early if they desire a good seat.

Coach Morton is expecting the most playing from a group of 16 boys, however, others may crash into the Trojan lineup. The starting eleven from Tallulah will probably come from Lloyd Erwin, Gary James, Lynn Taylor, Stoney Williams, Raymond Russell, M. L. Melton, George Wall and Shorty Jackson, backfield; and Jerry Merritt, Hoyt Lee, Tommy Montgomery, Frank McKay, Dick Brown, Tyrone Powell, Jimmy Sturdivant, and Wayne Hopkins, line.

Other squadmen who reported are Mike Bailey, F. M. Logue, Clyde Ray, Billy Allen, Billy Neighbors, Semion Wall, Carneal Woodyear, Jo. C. Yerger, Danny Neumann, J. C. Gunn, Dany Barnett, Kenneth Gunn, Eddie Lee, Don Bradley, Jerry Carter, E. H. Fisher, and John Burns.

Tallulah remains in the Class A bracket but moves in the 3-A District. Five conference games have been scheduled for the Trojans. They include Crowville, Rayville, Winnsboro, Lake Providence and Oak Grove. There is one other. Ferriday in the district, but are not scheduled. Jenny and Neville of Monroe moved into Class AA.

The only newcomer to the Trojan schedule is Wisner, a Class B school, replacing Winnfield. However, the rest is the same as last year.

The Trojans are expected to have a better than fair season as coach Morton begins his second year here. The coach reveals that he will begin the season using the popular split-T formation.

Gone from last season's backfield are Clayton Cox, Doc Doe Crothers, Billy Wixon, Bobby Halbach. From the line are William Thippen, Dean Morn, Jacob Story, Barney Westmoreland.

The Tallulah scheduled:
Sept. 10—Carr Central, Vicksburg, there.
Sept. 17—Wisner, there.
Sept. 24—Jena, here.
Oct. 1—Crowville, here.
Oct. 8—Newellton, there.

Senators Oppose Kansas City As New Loop Entry

By HERB ALTSCHULL

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (P)—The Washington Senators today came out against the proposed shift of the Philadelphia Athletics' franchise to Kansas City. Calvin Griffith, the Senators' executive vice president, said he would vote against any such move.

Three adverse votes by American League clubs would veto a shift of the franchise to Kansas City.

Griffith said things haven't advanced far enough yet for him to say whether he would take part in an active campaign to halt the move, but the indication was he wouldn't give up without a fight.

It's all because the St. Louis Browns have moved to Baltimore. As things stand now, Baltimore is a "western" club and rarely has home dates when Washington is playing at home.

If Philadelphia's franchise went to Kansas City, Baltimore in all likelihood would become an "Eastern" club and would be playing half its home games when Washington also was at home.

Baltimore is only 40 miles from Washington.

"There just aren't enough people in this area to support two teams," Griffith said.

It's a good bet that the Baltimore ownership also would vote against the shift to Kansas City. So it would be necessary to line up only one more adverse vote to defeat the proposed shift.

Griffith said he wouldn't like to see the A's move out of Philadelphia at all. But he added that this doesn't mean he wouldn't give his approval to a franchise shift to some city other than Kansas City.

He suggested Toronto as a good possibility.

Meanwhile, Philadelphia officials continue their rounds of conferences in an effort to decide what to do about the franchise.

All U. S. Women Out Of Canadian Event

HALIFAX N. S., Aug. 13 (P)—The last two United States players in the Canadian Women's Open championship were eliminated in the semi-finals today, making tomorrow's deciding round an all-Canadian show.

Mrs. Maurice Glick of Baltimore, was an easy 4 and 3 victim of little Marlene Stewart of Font-bill, Ont., winner of the Canadian closed crown last week and a former British women's titleholder.

Barbara Brunning of Armonk, N. Y., put up a tough struggle in her round with Mary Gay of Kitchener, Ont., before losing, 1 up, in a 21-hole match.

Start Owls Get Ready For First Tilt With L. T. I.

START, La., Aug. 13 (Special)—The Start High School Owls today ended their first two weeks of football training with interest reported "high" as Coach G. J. Fleischmann has more candidates seeking placed on the Owl eleven than ever before.

The Owls lost snappy Leonard Sullivan, Will Edd Dark and Billy Whitten by spring graduation, but with a wider choice of reserves, Coach Fleischmann expects to have the gaps plugged by the time Start gets around to opening the season with Louisiana Training Institute of Monroe on August 24.

The Owlettes, girls' booster organization, also began practicing early and will be prepared for early performances when the football season begins.

The cheerleaders have one new member, LaJuana Flint. Back from last year, by popular vote of the students, are Kathie Jan Fleischmann, Joyce Garland, Mary Joyce Fuller, and Mary Ann Robinson. Miss Flint replaced Corney Scroggins who graduated.

Eastland Raps Gartin's Stand On Labor Law

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP)—Sen. James Eastland (D-Miss.) called for his opponent to take a stand on the Taft-Hartley act and the amendments sought by "left-wing CIO leaders" as crowds jammed the 64th annual Neshoba County Fair.

Eastland said yesterday in the two months Lt. Gov. Carroll Gartin has been stumping the state, he "has not come within a thousand miles of a statement on the Taft-Hartley law" and the people are entitled to know how every candidate stands on the subject.

The senior senator, stumping for re-election in the Aug. 24 Democratic primary, said he voted for the bill "and would do it again" because it is "fair to both capital and labor."

Eastland was one of three principal speakers at the fair yesterday. The others were Ross R. Barnett of Jackson, who made his bid for governor in 1956, and Mrs. Mary Cain, editor of the weekly Summit Sun.

All three came out strongly for public school segregation and declared it would be maintained from one end of Mississippi to the other. Barnett fired his opening shot in the gubernatorial race which begins next summer with a two-point platform: maintenance of segregation and conservation of natural resources.

Mrs. Cain, who turned over ownership of her newspaper to her niece, Miss Mary Lou Butler, in an effort to evade the U. S. government's action in her social security fight, described the battle.

Then, she said, the government has begun garnishment proceedings against Miss Butler to recover $42 in back taxes it claims Mrs. Cain owes as a self-employed person.

Barnett termed the U. S. Supreme Court's segregation decision "damnable" and called the justices "politicians." He urged maintenance of segregation as a means of preventing racial intermarriage.

Turning to conservation, Barnett suggested the Legislature begin a plan to put into immediate production 7½ million idle acres throughout Mississippi.

Eastland stuck to segregation and the Taft-Hartley act.

He said because he voted for the Taft-Hartley bill, the CIO pressure groups began spending money to try to defeat him. "Last fall," he said, "they came to me and said I would not have opposition if I would support their amendments which would have cut the heart of the Taft-Hartley law. I turned them down cold and now I have opposition."

Portuguese Braced To Halt Invasion By Pro-Indians

NOVA GOA, Portuguese India, Aug. 13 (AP)—Portuguese authorities in this seacoast colony surrounded on three sides by Indian territory speeded defense preparations today against a threatened Gandhian "liberation" invasion Sunday.

Armed police sealed off all border areas facing India and restricted entry to those with special safe conduct passes. Loudspeakers along the Indian frontier warned trespassers to stay out of Portuguese territory. Troops moved into position to back up police and civil defense forces.

Gov. Gen. Paulo Bernard Guedes toured the border with top aides. Paper stickers plastered on the windshields of nearly all automobiles and buses said in Portuguese, "Out with the invaders" and "Defend our country, long live Portugal."

(This dispatch passed through Portuguese censorship as does all copy from the colony. The censors delete statements they interpret as critical of Portugal.)

Pro-Indian nationalists picked Sunday to stage their march on Goa because it is the seventh anniversary of Indian independence from British rule. Indian Prime Minister Nehru gave his blessing today to plans for the march in a New Delhi speech, laying down only one condition that the marchers stick to India's professed principles of non-violence.

Leaders of the Sunday invasion have announced they will enter Portuguese territory unarmed, carrying only Indian flags. This technique of "passive resistance" was employed frequently by followers of Mahatma Gandhi during the Indian freedom movement against British rule.

Nehru said the Indian army could, if it wanted, take over Portuguese Indian territory "in a trice." But he added that "we do not want to use the army and will not."

Contending that Portugal's 1,538 square-mile West Indian holdings would inevitably merge with India, Nehru declared that "India cannot prevent Goans from expressing their feelings about the merger and cannot interfere with Goans going" to the Portuguese areas.

Pair Held For Robbery Netting Not A Penny

BATESVILLE, Miss. (AP)—Deputy Sheriff William Arnold said a parolee from a Kansas prison and his young blonde companion were in jail here charged with a completely profitless robbery.

Arnold identified the two as Richard Wheeler, 31, of Wellington, Kan., and Mrs. Alice Louise Morgan, 16, of Enid, Okla.

Arnold said the robbery took place near Sardis Tuesday. Wheeler drove up to a grocery-filling station, called the operator to the car, "pushed a pistol in his face" and demanded that he give the blonde his wallet.

The operator, Robert Still, gave up the wallet—empty. He did not mention $153 in his pants pocket. The pair sped away, but the car, stolen earlier at Senatobia, was spotted two hours later by highway patrolmen.

Housewives Stage Sitdown Strike In Houston Street

HOUSTON, Aug. 13—UP—City officials capitulated to three militant housewives after a short-lived sit-down battle Friday and promised to pave a whole street instead of just half of it.

But before the battle was won, Mrs. R. W. Paramore, Mrs. C. R. Dodson and Mrs. U. C. Coolgrove plunked lawn chairs and their six kids down in the middle of their hot, dusty street and defied workmen for five hours to try and start a paving job.

"It's all or nothing," they chorused.

It seems city hall had fouled up on a work order.

Mrs. Paramore and the others had complained to city hall about paving their street which looked more like a sea of mud every time it rained. Early Friday two dump trucks showed up and dumped shell preparatory to topping.

The residents were delighted, momentarily. Then crew foreman T. C. Baker said he had orders from city hall to top only half the street—not their half.

Mrs. Paramore got on the telephone.

Engineer K. T. Edminister at city hall said "yep, the foreman's right—only half the street. The other half is already paved."

"You should live so long," said Mrs. Paramore, with conviction. She added "if our side doesn't get paved we'll see to it that the other half doesn't get paved either."

The trio of determined women then donned shorts and straw "war" bonnets, gathered up their brood and the lawn chairs, and took a stand—or sit.

The "truce" came at 2 p. m. Edminister said a "mistake" had been made and blacktopping of the whole street would get under way as soon as possible. He said the extra paving would cost the property owners about $70 each.

"That's fine," Mrs. Paramore said. "That's all we wanted. We'll get the chairs out of the street right away."

The "truce" came none too soon. It was raining at 2:30 p. m.

DRAWS PRISON SENTENCE

BOSSIER CITY—UP—Federal Judge Ben C. Dawkins, Jr., handed down a two-year prison sentence Wednesday to Cozy Dillard, Negro, who pleaded guilty to three counts of mailing obscene, lewd and lascivious letters. The woman wrote one of the letters to Bossier City police.

'Goodbye' Says Doomed Convict

OSSINING, N. Y., Aug. 13—UP—Gerhard Puff, 40, a German immigrant who became one of this nation's most wanted criminals, was electrocuted at Sing Sing prison Thursday night for killing an FBI agent.

He said "goodbye" to U.S. Marshal Thomas J. Lunney and smiled as he was strapped into the big oak chair. Prison doctors pronounced him dead at 11:08 p. m.

Department Store Sales Show Gain

ATLANTA (AP)—Department store sales were a little spotty from city to city in the Sixth Federal Reserve District last week but the area wound up the week with a four per cent gain over the comparative period of 1953.

The Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta reported today that four of eight key cities showed increases over a year ago and four had declines. Atlanta and Miami were down 3 per cent each, New Orleans 11 and Tampa 9.

Augusta was off 7 per cent, Birmingham 5, Jacksonville 1 and Nashville 11.

Navy To Drop 45,000 Inactive Reserve Officers

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (AP)—Forty-five thousand inactive officers are going to be dropped from the Navy's reserve rolls.

Announcing this today, Asst. Secretary of the Navy James H. Smith Jr., said the slash is part of an over-all tightening up program for the Naval Reserve.

All those pruned out of the program will be given honorable discharges, Smith told a news conference. He added the 45,000 include "valuable friends of the Navy and veterans with fine service records."

Officers affected are those who have not been in reserve activities for the past three years or more. Letters of notification will start going out within a few days.

Enlisted reservists will not be affected, Smith said. The Navy has only about 400,000 of these now, and the Pentagon plans to ask Congress to approve an increase to 600,000 next year.

Smith said more inactive officers will be dropped later, after their records and their wishes with respect to further reserve service have been looked over.

Today's announcement followed a poll of reserve officers which the Navy started last year. More than 100,000 inactive reservists were sent questionnaires. Slightly more than half replied. Some 25,000 resigned their commissions, another 20,000 retired and about 7,000 resumed active participation in the reserve program.

Smith said the 45,000 to be dropped now are among those who failed to respond to the Navy's search for information.

The new slash does not include medical and dental officers, aviators, officers who served actively in the Korean War or those with more than 18 years' satisfactory service.

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Aug. 13—UP—A vast forest fire raged over an area near Big Delta, Alaska, Friday and more than 200 fire-fighters battled to keep the blaze from advancing on Army installations and homes.

French And Reds Negotiating On Prisoner-Swap

HANOI, Aug. 13—UP—French and Communist officials were reported ready Friday to sign an agreement on the exchange of war prisoners, to start early next week.

The most famous captive of the war in Indo-China, Brig. Gen. Christian De Castries, commander at Dien Bien Phu, was among the thousands of men to be exchanged.

French officials expected the Dien Bien Phu prisoners to be among the last released by the Communists, and De Castries to be among the last of that group. The Reds held Maj. Gen. William F. Dean until the end of the Korean exchange.

Informed sources reported that the working agreement on the prisoner exchange would be signed by Saturday night.

There were earlier exchanges of a few hundred French Union and Viet-Minh troops.

Suspect Says He Forged Checks In Several States

BATON ROUGE, Aug. 13 (AP)—A man claiming to be a psychology graduate was held on forgery and theft charges here while sheriff's deputies attempted to clear up his story of a bad check spree in some 15 states.

Sheriff Bryan Clemmons said Ellis Stubenberg of Chicago, alias I. D. Evans, told officers he used a "borrowed" hotel chain identification card in cashing bad checks around the country.

The sheriff's office is checking to see if Stubenberg is wanted anywhere else.

He was booked here last night after returning to a men's store to pick up some new luggage. The store, suspicious of the check, had investigated through local and St. Louis banks.

Stubenberg, 30, claims to be a

Southern Methodist University graduate.

He told officers he obtained the identification card in an East St. Louis hotel and could remember passing him checks in such cities as St. Louis, New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Detroit, Buffalo, Rochester, N. Y., Providence, Pittsfield (Mass.), New Orleans, Springfield and Worcester, Mass., and Baton Rouge.

Memory failed him on all the states, cities and amounts involved, but deputies hope to fill in the blanks by checking with police across the country.

SUFFERS FISH BITE

NEW ORLEANS —UP— Miss Corrine Hammett, 27, Harvey, was treated for six tooth punctures on her lower left leg after she was bitten by a fish in Lake Pontchartrain within wading distance of the beach. The incident yesterday was the second involving fish bites in waters off Pontchartrain Beach in recent weeks. A dog shark reportedly bit a child's foot about four weeks ago.

Marsh Assumes ASC Duties In Farmerville

FARMERVILLE, Aug. 13 (Special) — Van Marsh, recently appointed by the Louisiana Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee as Union Parish manager for the ASC, has arrived in Farmerville and is now in charge of the office here.

Marsh is a graduate of Louisiana State University and holds a Bachelor of Science degree in agriculture from the university.

Mystery Blast Wakes Residents Of Texas Town

CENTER, Tex., Aug. 13 —UP— A mysterious explosion damaged an oil tool house and set off a grass fire within 200 yards of storage tanks of four oil companies here early Friday.

The blast believed caused by dynamite, occurred after midnight near the Max Allen Feed Co. Deputy Sheriff Alton Hughes said little damage was done.

Firemen quickly extinguished the grass fire before it could reach the oil tanks.

Hughes said there was no indication the explosion was connected in any way with the bombing of labor leader Al Williams' auto about three weeks ago.

He said there was no labor trouble at the mill.

Gail Borden discovered how to condense milk.
